An iceberg is a large piece of freshwater ice that has broken off a glacier or an ice shelf and is floating freely in open (salt) water. Small bits of disintegrating icebergs are called "growlers" or "berg bits". Much of an iceberg is below the surface which led to the expression "tip of the iceberg" to illustrate a small part of a larger unseen issue.. Icebergs are

The Iceberg is a hidden room in Club Penguin Rewritten, located north-east of the island. As the room is surrounded by water, the iceberg cannot be accessed by walking from another room and can only be accessed via the Map or teleportation. It is home to the Aqua Grabber mini-game, allowing players to travel

TIP OF THE ICEBERG | meaning in the Cambridge English ...

The text of the constitutions was merely the tip of an iceberg of common law, legislative compromise, judicial decision, and extra-governmental practice.

From the Cambridge English Corpus This is just the tip of the iceberg for cognitive archaeology, however, because such conceptualization is by no means sufficient for actual tool production.
